

The Coming: A Peaceable Kingdom Matthew 3:1-12

What kind of patience are you?

Christ's _____ is associated with _____. (Greek root- "last" and "study", involves the study of the "end of things")

With the _____ in mind, _____ is required!

To wait for the coming again of this Messiah means we need to both _____ and _____ walk toward this way of living.

We are not waiting, hoping that the situation becomes
"_____" for Jesus to _____.

"Removing everything which might prove a hindrance to his gracious appearance."

Is there room in the _____ of your heart for the _____ of _____?

We cannot and will not _____ the Advent of Christ in our lives and in our world unless we focus on _____ the way for the Lord in our _____.

When our hearts are broken by the brokenness of the world and the _____ dissension, _____ and cling to _____.

Blood Drive—December 13

We are hosting a blood drive for the American Red Cross on Tuesday, December 13. Visit redcrossblood.org/give to sign up for a time to donate blood. We can support Brice Allen by helping to replenish the blood supplies!

Kids Christmas Program Rehearsal and PARTY!

December 17 at 9 AM kids ages 4 years old—6th grade will rehearse for their Christmas program. Following, at 10 AM all kids and families are invited to a Christmas Party in Hampton Hall.

You're Invited

John and Nancy Schinkel invite you to a drop-in graduation party for their son, AJ Schinkel, to celebrate his graduation from BSU! Saturday, December 17 from 3-6 PM.
239 Lonestar Road in Nampa.

NMI Update

Our NMI December emphasis is introducing our district missionaries, Rev. John and Naymal Yual.

We welcome John and Naymal Yual to the Lakeview family. This couple has over 20 years of pastoral experience in church planting and developing leaders mostly among refugees in Uganda, Kenya and South Sudan. Their home country is South Sudan, but because of conflict there they reside in Uganda.

In the following months we will get to know John and Naymal and have an opportunity to meet them in person at the district NMI convention in May.

The Coming: A Peaceable Kingdom
Matthew 3:1-12

Communion

So That...

Prayers of the People

David Crabill: Mom is doing better but still needs prayer for her cognitive health.

Wanda’s daughter Helen and her daughter-in-law Dee: Both have had covid and are on oxygen. The infections make them really sick.

Brice/Donna: Praise: Brice is out of the ICU and continues to improve overall. Engraftment is occurring! Pray for continued cognitive response and healing.

DeBoers: Pray for the DeBoers as they walk through this time as Ruth is home and receiving palliative care.

Amanda Ferguson: Thank the Lord for life itself. Thank you for my wonderful family and sober support.

Terry Cotner’s Friend’s Sister: Vickie passed away recently. Please continue to pray for the family as they grieve.

Pastor Nate’s Father: Prayer for continued health & recovery, and praises for the wonderful time the family had last week!

Caroline Cotner: My younger sister’s husband, Norm, is dying of cancer and in a lot of pain. He is saved and at peace with God.

Dorothy: The mother of Susie, a volunteer for Matthew 25, had emergency surgery this week, and needs prayer for recovery.

Reed Frederick & classmates: Reed’s friend’s mom passed away suddenly last week. Pray for the family and the kids who were close to her as they grieve and have many emotions about this tragedy.

Angel Tree Requests:

Family asking for prayer as they adjust to mother returning home soon after 5 years of incarceration. Prayer for all kids in the family as mixed families are still working on kids getting along.

Family asking for prayer for Father’s upcoming parole, adjustment to life out and with his kids and staying sober. Prayer for the mother as she adjusts to the whole process.

Mother asking for prayer for strength to not be over stressed during the holidays, strength to live day to day as she has many medical issues and hasn’t been able to work the last 10 months and has run through her savings. (If you would like to be involved in gifting her normal household goods and hygiene items, please talk with Pastor Gretchin)

Advent Small Group

An Advent Small Group on the book Shadow and Light continues to meet Tuesdays at 7 PM here at the church. See Nicole Elmore or Pastor Rachelle with questions.

Angel Tree

Our angel tree is set up near the “Won’t You be Their Neighbor?” wall, and filled with tags for kids both in the Nampa community as well as here at Lakeview. Please take a tag or more and return gifts unwrapped but with the Angel Tree tag attached by December 11.
