

Prayer Journal

The following are pages to print, cut out, and staple together with or without a construction paper cover to create a prayer journal for kids. Each page has space for drawing and writing, and it has both word and picture prompts to meet the needs of all readers.

I can praise God.

I am thankful for ...

I can pray for my family.

I can pray for my friends.

I can pray for my community.

I can pray for my needs.

A simple black stick figure with a smiling face, arms raised, and legs spread, positioned at the end of the bottom-most writing line.

I can ask for forgiveness.

A cartoon illustration of two people hugging, with a bright yellow sunburst effect behind them, positioned at the end of the bottom-most writing line.

I can ask for guidance.

A black and white compass rose with the cardinal directions N, S, E, and W labeled, positioned at the end of the bottom-most writing line.
